The background is a lush green forest scene. At the top and bottom, there are rows of small, dark green trees. In the center, a large, light brown wooden sign with a distressed, hand-painted appearance is the focal point. The sign has a thin orange border and small dark spots representing knots or nails. It displays the game's end screen information. To the left and right of the sign, there are stylized green plants with long, pointed leaves. A single acorn hangs from the top center of the sign. Various small, dark green bushes and red berries are scattered throughout the forest floor.
